cause why an order to that effect should not be issued, was applied for by J. D. Skeen in an affidavit filed with the county clerk today.

In this affidavit Skeen sefs forth the facts of a condemnation suit brought by the company against John S. Lewls for a right of way through his property in the canyon when the road was being built last summer. This action was tried in the district court and resulted in Lewls being awarded a judgment for a larger amount than the company was willing to pay for the right of way. Since the operation of the road this summer, notices have been posted in all canyon cars to the effect that no stops would be made between certain points on either side of the Lewis resort.

Skeen says that there are twenty-five families who have summer camps at the Lewis resort, who are dependent on the Rapid Transit company to a large extent during the summer months, and that the income received by the company stopping its cars would be considerable.

OGDEN, June 28.—Injuries received as a result of an automobile accident are the basis of a damage suit begun in the district court this afternoon by Charles B. Sewell against Henry Linderman. While driving in his buggy along Washington avenue, near Seventh street, on June 12. Sewell says that Daniel Linderman, the 17-year-old sen of the defendant, approached in a four-passenger Maxwell machine. A collision occurred and Sewell was thrown to the ground, receiving severe injuries on the right side of his body, he asserts. The buggy was damaged to the extent of $150, while Sewell claims $1000 damages for the personal injuries which he received.

The plaintiff charges the Linderman lad with carelessness and incompetency in the matter of handling an automobile. "Sick, sore, lame and distressed in mind and body" is the way Sewell describes his feelings after arising from the ground.

SEWER TAX IN PROVO: CITY TO CLEAN UP

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, June 28—H. C. Smith, deputy state dairy and food inspector, was in Ogden for a short time today for an inspection of the slaughter houses and canneries of Weber county. Mr. Smith asserted that conditions at the slaughter houses have vasily improved since his visit of inspection ten days ago. Mr. Smith found sanitary conditions good at the Wasatch and Star canning factories of this county and the Morgan factory of Morgan county, which he visited yesterday. PROVO, June 28.—A committee from the Provo Commercial club, consisting of Mayor W. H. Ray, Wilford F. Gles and C. Eugene Fletcher, walted on the city council to ask that the city arrange for cleaning and sprinkling the streets for the U. C. T. outing here July 4 and 5. WILDING BEATS WRIGHT IN ALL-COMERS' SINGLES

WIMBLEDON England, June 28—A. F. Wilding the New Zealand crack, beat Beals C. Wright of Boston in the final of the all-comers' singles in the All-England lawn tennis championship today, 4-6; 4-6; 5-4; 5-2; 6-3.

It was a splendid, hard-fought match, Wright outclassed his opponent both in service and volleying during the early part of the contest and won the first two sets handlily. Thereafter he tired perceptibly. Wilding's longer reach served him in good stead, and superior playing at the base line enabled him to win. Wilding's victory today gives him the right to challenge the holder, A. W. Gore, for the championship of Great Britain.
